

June 2018

Dear All,

It is with sadness that I announce the forthcoming retirement of Mrs Sally Jane, Assistant Headteacher. Sally has worked here at Penpol for an incredible thirty-eight years and has made the difficult decision to retire from the end of this summer term in order to travel and pursue other interests.

Sally's incredible contributions to Penpol have influenced the lives of so many children of Hayle. She is an inspirational, creative and caring teacher and her leadership of inclusive practice has ensured that each child at Penpol, regardless of learning need, has been able to shine and succeed. She will be very much missed by all.

I know that you will join me in wishing Sally all the very best in her retirement and in thanking her for her many years of service to the children and families of Penpol.

We are currently in the process of recruiting a new Assistant Headteacher and will keep you updated in due course.

With very best wishes,

Chris Chislett
Headteacher
