Dear Parents/Carers,

As you may imagine, our Year 6 trip to London this year is sadly looking uncertain due to the coronavirus outbreak.

We are currently working closely with the providers who are waiting for further advice from the government. Given this, we are not in a position to formally cancel the trip at this stage without losing the deposits already paid.

This is a developing situation and we will update you with any further news when we have it. Many thanks for your patience.

Please do get in touch should you have any questions or concerns.

Best wishes,

Chris Chislett
Headteacher
