Statement of intent

Assessment is integral to effective teaching and learning. Through internal assessment, such as observation, questioning, discussions and feedback, we can gather information about each pupil's abilities, learning needs and performance, and use this information to adapt teaching and learning practices to meet a pupil's individual needs.

Via this continuous feedback mechanism, we can ensure that each pupil receives teaching specific to their needs, enabling them to reach their full potential.

We believe that assessment for learning should:

- Be at the heart of classroom practice.
- Focus on how pupils learn.
- Promote a commitment to learning goals.
- Provide pupils with constructive guidance to enable improvement.
- Develop pupils' ability to self-assess, to enable them to become reflective self-learners.
- Recognise the achievements of all learners.

Aims

We aim to:

- Enable every pupil to progress through the curriculum at an appropriate level.
- Create a picture of each pupil's performance and use this information to challenge, inspire and motivate.
- Celebrate pupils' achievements.
- Only use additional assessment as necessary, for example, to inform classroom practice, introduce further adaptations and plan the necessary support for pupils with SEND.
- Ensure judgements are made in an honest and transparent manner and are supported by other professionals from both inside and outside the school.
- Use assessment data to track pupils' progress, to ensure they reach their full academic potential.

3. Assessment for learning

- 3.1. Teachers use assessment for learning to provide ongoing assessment, through the use of feedback marking and/or observations of pupils' learning, against learning objectives and success criteria. This information is then used to assess progress towards meeting learning objectives, and to identify and set next step targets for each pupil.

Assessment methods/materials

- 3.2. Assessment for learning may take the following forms:
- Observing pupils' interactions, holding discussions with pupils and observing pupils' learning against specific objectives and learning criteria
 - Checking understanding as a group and as individuals
 - Targeted questioning to determine how secure pupils' understanding is
 - Using lesson objectives and success criteria to make pupils aware of what they are learning and how they can deepen their understanding
 - Self-assessment and peer assessment, enabling pupils to review, edit and improve their learning and become reflective learners
 - Coaching pupils using verbal feedback to guide them and prompt improvement
 - Providing verbal and occasionally written feedback to pupils that is closely matched to their learning needs
 - Assessment of exemplar learning of different levels
 - The use of assessment criteria and examination materials
- 3.3. Annotated plans and planning notes, made by class teachers and other adults involved with each pupil, are used to record other important information about pupils' progress.
- 3.4. Termly tests are used to identify progress and gaps in learning. The tests help to inform teacher assessment as a part of a broader evidence base.
- 3.5. Termly pupil progress reviews are used to identify and analyse progress and set targets in reading, writing and maths for classes and cohorts.
- 3.6. Pupils receive timely verbal feedback on their progress as per the Feedback on Learning Policy.

Planning for assessment

- 3.7. The national curriculum programmes of study are used to guide our teaching. These documents provide us with the framework to ensure breadth and balance in our curriculum.
- 3.8. Lessons contain clear learning objectives, based on the teacher's detailed knowledge of each pupil. We strive to ensure all tasks set are appropriate to each pupil's level of ability.
- 3.9. Teachers use focussed marking to assess pupils' progress in relation to the planned learning objectives, and set the next steps to show where the pupil is in relation to this aim and how they can achieve the aim. Teachers use this information when planning for subsequent lessons.
- 3.10. Results of published tests are used to contribute to overall teacher assessments.

Reporting

- 3.11. Reporting to parents provides the opportunity for communication about their child's achievements, abilities and future targets. End of year reports are written so that they have a positive effect on pupils' attitudes, motivation and self-esteem.
- 3.12. We provide opportunities for two-parent consultation evenings so that parents can discuss how well their child has settled and are able to be involved in the target setting process. In addition, we provide opportunities for drop-in sessions with the teachers and a final end-of-year report.
- 3.13. We provide parents with an end-of-year written report before the end of the Summer term, which includes the results of statutory tests and assessments, and gives information relating to progress and attainment as well as identifying future learning targets.
- 3.14. We give parents the opportunity to discuss their child's progress by appointment.
- 3.15. We publish the following KS2 results on our school website:
 - Average progress scores in reading, writing and maths
 - Average 'scaled scores' in reading and maths
 - The percentage of pupils who achieved the expected standard or above in reading, writing and maths
 - The percentage of pupils who achieved a high level of attainment in reading, writing and maths
- 3.16. We will provide a link to our performance tables on our school website on <https://www.penpolschool.co.uk/performance-data-ks2-results/>

- 3.17. We also provide reports for pupils at the end of KS1 and KS2 which include the outcomes of national curriculum assessments.

KS1

- 3.18. Reports for pupils at the end of KS1 will include:

- Outcomes of the statutory national curriculum teacher assessment in reading, writing, maths and science.
- A statement that teacher assessment outcomes take into account the results of statutory national curriculum tests in reading and maths.
- Where appropriate, a statement explaining why any national curriculum test has not been taken.
- Comparative information about the attainment of pupils of the same age in the school.
- Comparative information about the attainment in the core subjects of pupils of the same age nationally.
- Arrangements for discussing the report with the pupil's teacher.

KS2

- 3.19. Reports for pupils at the end of KS2 will include:

- The results of any national curriculum tests taken, including the pupil's scaled score, and whether they met the expected standard.
- The outcomes of statutory national curriculum teacher assessments in reading, writing, maths and science.
- Where appropriate, a statement explaining why any national curriculum test has not been taken.
- Comparative information about the attainment of pupils of the same age in the school.
- Comparative information about the attainment in the core subjects of pupils of the same age nationally.
- Arrangements for discussing the report with the pupil's teacher.

Moderation

- 3.20. Regular moderation of levelling takes place each term to ensure consistency. Teachers meet in phase groups or in cross-phase groups to analyse pupils' work against national curriculum or EYFS requirements. Teachers also meet termly in a cluster with other local primaries to moderate writing. During the Summer term, teachers in Reception, Year 2 and Year 6 are involved in formal teacher assessments, as part of end of key stage assessments and LA moderation.
- 3.21. Phase groups moderate pieces of work together, allowing teachers to share knowledge, demonstrate best practice and plan for progress. A phase meeting gives a structured session in which to reflect on their own practice and make suggestions for specific or whole-school training.

4. Baseline assessment

- 4.1. Pupils joining the school will receive a baseline assessment when they start.
- 4.2. The school follows the DfE's Reception Baseline Assessment guidance, using the supplied resources and carrying out the assessments within the first six weeks of pupils starting school. Class teachers conduct these assessments and undergo DfE directed training.
- 4.3. Pupils' speech and language are assessed during their first few weeks in Reception. Any pupil with significant speech and language difficulties is referred to a speech and language therapist.

5. Formative assessment

- 5.1. Formative assessment creates a positive learning environment where pupils can see the steps necessary for their own success. It enables teachers to set appropriate work at the level necessary for pupils' continuing progress.
- 5.2. Formative assessment is a powerful way of raising pupils' achievement. It is based on the principle that pupils will improve most if they understand the aim of their learning, where they are in relation to this aim and how they can achieve the aim.
- 5.3. Formative assessments are used to:
- Identify pupils' strengths and gaps in their skills/knowledge.
 - Identify the next steps for learning.
 - Inform future planning.
 - Enable appropriate strategies to be employed.
 - Facilitate the setting of appropriate targets for the class, group and individual.

- Track the pupil's rate of progress.
 - Facilitate an evaluation of the effectiveness of teaching and learning.
 - Inform future teaching and learning strategies.
 - Identify individuals and groups for specific intervention support.
- 5.4. Formative assessment is not punitive. It is used to guide teaching and learning and help pupils achieve their targets. It is not used to judge a teacher's performance.
- 5.5. Methods of formative assessment include the following:
- Question and answer sessions
 - Hot seating and quizzes
 - Self-assessment
 - Sonar Tracking system

6. Summative assessment

- 6.1. Summative assessment is important for:
- Accurate information regarding a pupil's attainment and progress.
 - Informing both parents and teachers of a pupil's attainment and progress.
- 6.2. Summative assessments:
- Identify attainment through one-off tests at any given point in time.
 - Record performance in a specific area on a specific date.
 - Provide end of key stage test data against which the school will be judged.
 - Ensure statutory assessments take place at the end of KS1 and KS2.
 - Provide information about cohort areas of strength and weakness to build from in the future.
 - Are used to determine a pupil's final grade.
 - Are used to judge a teacher's performance.
 - Are used to monitor the progress of individuals and groups of pupils.
- 6.3. Methods of summative assessment include:

- End of year statutory tests.
- Termly tests – Testbase (Autumn and Summer) and Star Reading.
- End of unit tests, for example, White Rose End of Unit Tests
- Sonar Tracker – a pupil assessment and progress tracker for KS1 and KS2 from September 2022.
- Other software packages that support curriculum and learning assessments.

7. EYFS

Focussed observations

- 7.1. Three to four pupils are identified each week and take part in a focussed observation. This involves focussing on the child for approximately 10 minutes and documenting what they do (this may involve written note-taking). If appropriate, the adult will support play when conducting this observation. The focussed observation is then analysed, and the next steps are identified and planned for, for the following week. Pupils take part in at least one focussed observation per term.

Short observations

- 7.2. These are short, spontaneous 'capture the moment' observations. Teachers and early years practitioners (EYPs) document onto sticky notes what the pupil has completed. These are then annotated with the appropriate band and filed into the pupil's individual learning journal along with long observations. Both the long and short observations are used to provide evidence to assess and complete the EYFS Profile, and termly judgements are made using this information.

Special books

- 7.3. These are scrapbooks that highlight key achievements for the pupils. Photographs of key events in Reception and exemplar pieces of learning, mainly done independently, are included in this book. Parents and families are encouraged to send in pieces of learning, certificates and photographs that can be included in the book to create a whole picture of the pupil. These books provide key evidence in support of the profile points, which creates a record of attainment for each pupil.

Focus activity

- 7.4. During focussed activities, teaching staff write comments on the pupil's learning using sticky notes, often identifying the level of support needed or if the learning was done independently. Pupils are encouraged to discuss their learning and next steps are also discussed in child-friendly terms.

- 7.5. All of the information collated over the year provides the evidence base for the early learning goals at the end of Reception.

8. KS1 and KS2

- 8.1. Teachers use assessment for learning to provide ongoing assessment, through the use of focussed marking and/or observations of pupils' learning, against learning objectives and success criteria. This information is then used to assess progress towards meeting learning targets, and to identify and set next step targets for each pupil.
- 8.2. Annotated plans and planning notes, made by class teachers and other adults involved with each pupil, record other important information about the progress of children in the class.
- 8.3. Termly and end of unit tests may be used to identify progress and gaps in learning. These are used to set targets in reading, writing and maths for individual pupils and groups.
- 8.4. Termly pupil progress reviews are used to identify and analyse progress and set targets in reading, writing and maths for classes and cohorts.
- 8.5. Pupils receive timely verbal feedback on their progress.

Planning for assessment

- 8.6. The national curriculum programmes of study are used to guide our teaching. These documents provide us with the framework to ensure breadth and balance in our curriculum.
- 8.7. Lessons contain clear learning objectives, based upon the teacher's detailed knowledge of each pupil. We strive to ensure all tasks set are appropriate to each pupil's level of ability.
- 8.8. Teachers use whole class feedback marking to assess pupils' progress in relation to the planned learning objectives, and then take purposeful steps to support pupils and plan the next steps based on this assessment.

Assessment methods/materials

- 8.9. Teachers use a range of assessment tools and materials (including analysis of pupils' work in books, guided reading records and results of class tests/published tests), alongside ongoing marking and notes of pupil observations, to inform their assessment of progress for individual pupils and groups.

- 8.10. Results of published tests are used to contribute to overall teacher assessments.

9. Catch-up Premium and Assessment (Covid 19)

9.1 Catch up Premium:

- 9.1. Children and young people across the country have experienced unprecedented disruption to their education. Those from the most vulnerable and disadvantaged backgrounds will be among those pupils hardest hit. The government has announced £1 billion of funding to support children and young people to catch up.

It is imperative that this money is used to support the children who are off track from reaching their potential. Using high impact intervention, assessment to find out what they need and achieving accelerated progress.

- 9.2. At Penpol we are using the money in the following way:

- Additional support in each year group to deliver focused interventions and catch up support.
- Additional teacher allocations to support in key year groups.
- Additional SENDCO allocation to provide added support for pupils on the SEND register.

We believe that using this money to boost support during the school day allows a more adaptive and fluid response to children's developing needs.

- 9.3. Impact:

To ensure maximum impact of this additional support we will make full use of our existing provision mapping processes alongside clear progress records from our catch-up team.

Weekly Phase leader meetings, inclusion meetings and phase meetings discuss progress for individual children and across a cohort.

- 9.4. Assessment:

As children return to school, it is essential that their learning is assessed and gaps identified to ensure their continued progress and attainment.

These gaps need to be addressed with quality first teaching followed, or preceded by, targeted support to give opportunities for coaching, small group teaching and therefore providing the best environment for success.

There are many ways to provide a true learning picture of each child and at Penpol we know how essential this is to progress, as well as creating a positive learning attitude for each child. Understanding how children learn and retain information, as well as providing support at the point of learning, means unlocking the curriculum for each and every child.

9.5. Maths:

In maths there are a variety ways that effective and informative assessment can be carried out and used to provide maximum impact on children's progress:

- each time a new set of objectives are taught the children will be introduced to the previous years end of block assessment from the White Rose Scheme. This will inform teachers of where to start pitching the learning episode and any groups or individuals who would benefit from a pre-teach or specifically targeted learning in the lesson.
- Teachers include opportunities for discussion with themselves and peers, independent completion of questions or a small group approach.
- Teachers use Sonar, a tracking system, to monitor progress of individuals, groups and cohorts in this subject area.
- Class marking provides specific information against the learning objective for each pupil. Those that have been successful and will need to be challenged, as well as those who would benefit from a pre-teach session or guided group to return to the lessons teaching points.
- Use of White Rose recap questions. These consist of a small set of questions that contain a variety of questions from the previous year's learning. These give a valuable picture of a child's retention of previous learning and can be used to inform intervention and the content of the next lesson.

9.6. Writing:

English assessment happens at all times during teaching but it is important that specific gaps for children are identified and teaching put in place to continue to raise the standard of writing across the school. To ensure this happens:

- Every child writes an unaided piece at the beginning of the term to allow teachers to look for trends across a year group, group children with similar levels of understanding to provide support in class with quality first teaching and also in identify individual gaps in order to provide catch-up or pre-teach sessions to be delivered outside of the session.
- Class marking provides specific objective led feedback. This enables children to have intervention before the next session so they can access the learning for the next day or pick up on misconceptions from that days teaching.

- SPaG lessons, quality class texts and writing opportunities link together where possible to provide joined up teaching points and more opportunities to practice skills in context. These are delivered through projects to engage and provide rich learning experiences.
- Teachers use Sonar, a tracking system, to monitor progress of individuals, groups and cohorts in this subject area.

9.7. Reading:

Reading is threaded throughout all our curriculum delivery using high quality texts as well as class reading sessions.

- Every child completes a termly star reading test to identify their current ZPD range and also those children who may have fallen behind their predicted reading progress.
- Daily class reading sessions.
- Children in KS1 are taught through the RWI programme in highly effective groups providing the correct level of learning. Children are regularly assessed by the phonics team and moved groups when necessary to ensure challenge as well as added levels of support.
- Teachers use Sonar, a tracking system, to monitor progress of individuals, groups and cohorts in this subject area.

10. Monitoring meetings

- 10.1. The headteacher, SLT and subject leaders meet regularly with the aim of monitoring the effectiveness of assessment, analysing performance data, setting targets for improvement, discussing training requirements and ensuring high standards are upheld.
- 10.2. Subject leaders review the quality of marking and assessment to determine if any staff members are in need of development, conduct data analysis, and discuss progress towards targets and subject-specific issues.

11. Assessing pupils with SEND

- 11.1. Assessment provides pupils with SEND with the support they need to reach their full potential and allows teachers to develop a long-term learning pathway for every pupil.
- 11.2. Assessment is used to identify pupils' SEND requirements and determine their ongoing support needs as early as possible.
- 11.3. Assessment methods are adapted for some pupils with SEND. Adaptations include:
 - Adapting the use of questioning to allow sufficient response time.

- Using visual stimuli.
 - Using alternative means of communication.
 - Adapted tests, such as the use of braille, large print, readers and scribes, and extended time.
- 11.4. High expectations are held for pupils with SEND and SMART targets are set within their Assess, Plan, Do, Review records or Learning plans in the Provision Map software.
 - 11.5. When teachers assess pupils with SEND against the expected standards – the statutory framework is used to make judgements. Any pupil not working at the expected standard will be assessed at pre-key stage standards or the engagement model.
 - 11.6. If a pupil has a disability that prevents them from demonstrating attainment as described in their learning goals, assessments are based on their preferred method of communication.
 - 11.7. Teachers aim to ensure that all pupils can demonstrate attainment of learning goals with reasonable adjustments in place, but assessment standards are never compromised.
 - 11.8. PIVATS will be a formative assessment tool to map performance indicators against learning goals in reading, writing, listening and maths.
 - 11.9. During termly pupil progress meetings, teachers can meet with the SENDCO to analyse pupils' needs and plan support. Analysis is based on formative/summative assessments, the views of parents, the views of the pupil, and information from external professionals.

12. Malpractice and cheating

- 12.1. Teachers will ensure that assessments are fair. They will remain vigilant to malpractice and escalate any alleged, suspected or actual incidents of malpractice/cheating.
- 12.2. Pupils found to be cheating during assessments will be disciplined in line with the respected policies internally or externally depending on the nature of the test and their assessments will be scrutinised and adjusted or dismissed in line with teachers' professional judgements.
- 12.3. Teachers who fail to report malpractice/cheating, or are found to be manipulating pupils' assessment scores, will be dealt with in line with the Disciplinary Policy and Procedures.

13. Reporting to parents

- 13.1. The headteacher will send an annual report to pupils' parents and make arrangements for parents to discuss the report with their child's teacher if necessary.
- 13.2. The reports will start from the day after the last report was given and will be available to parents before the end of the Summer term.
- 13.3. The report will cover the pupil's achievements, general progress, attendance record, results from national curriculum tests and outcomes of teacher assessments.
- 13.4. For pupils who did not take one or more of the tests, the headteacher will write a report that explains why they did not take the tests, any action that has been taken to support the pupil, procedures used by the school to monitor the pupil's needs, and whether these circumstances are likely to be long or short term.
- 13.5. A report will be sent to the pupil's parents and the chair of the governing board and the information will be placed on the pupil's educational record.
- 13.6. If a pupil changes school before the end of the academic year, the headteacher at the receiving school will write their annual report, having received the necessary information from the headteacher of the pupil's former school.
- 13.7. If a pupil is registered at more than one school, both headteachers will write an annual report.

14. Record keeping

- 14.1. The school ensures that the collation, retention, storage and security of all personal information complies with data protection legislation.
- 14.2. The school keeps curricular records on every pupil, including a formal record of all academic achievements, skills, abilities and the progress they make at school – these will be updated once a year.
- 14.3. When transferring records to a pupil's new school, the headteacher will ensure the statutory requirements for the transfer are fulfilled.
- 14.4. The school's GDPR Data Protection Policy will be followed at all times.

15. Monitoring and review

- 15.1. This policy will be reviewed annually by the Assessment Lead.
- 15.2. Any changes to this policy will be communicated to all members of staff.

15.3. The next scheduled review date for this policy is September 2023.
