

What is History?

History is the study of the past. It helps us understand how things have changed over time and why the world is the way it is today.

Wartime Britain

What qualities does a historian have?

Respectful, curious, investigative, resilient, imaginative.

What do I already know?

- I can make connections between local, national and international history.
- I can create a wide range of historically - valid questions.
- I know that knowledge about the past is constructed from a range of sources.
- I understand how propaganda was used and how there are contrasting opinions about the past.

Tier 3 Vocabulary

Allies
Axis
Atom Bomb
German occupied
Invasion
Liberate
Military
Nazi
Occupied
Trenches
Holocaust
Rationing

Knowledge Concept	As a historian, I can...	Enquiry Question and Knowledge
	Use secure chronological understanding Examine in depth an aspect of local history from a period beyond 1066 Analyse similarity and difference and use them to make connections and draw contrasts Examine different aspects of history eg social, cultural, political and religious, in different contexts Gain historical perspective by making connections between local, national and international history	How did WW1/WW2 effect Cornwall?
	Address and devise a wide range of historically-questions about change, cause, impact and significance	How has world wide conflict been influenced from previous conflicts across the world?
	Construct informed responses that include relevant historical information Develop opinions and judgements through reading and listening to evidence Explain why different arguments and interpretations of the past exist	What is propaganda and how was it used by both Allies and Axis? Propaganda is the spreading of misleading information in order to influence the public and serve the interests of the messenger. Propaganda is most commonly used to spread a particular political message and has been used historically during times of conflict.
	Develop and apply a range of historical vocabulary eg influential, narratives, perspective	Who was an influential figure from the wars and how has their story been told? Who was an influential figure from the wars and how has their story been told?

What equipment will help me?

- Stories
- Sources
- Timelines
- Artefacts
- Photos
- Objects
- Accounts

Wider Thinking (Diversity/ Inspirational people)

Women in war
The Common Wealths contribution to the war.
Odette Sansom - French/ British spy

Key Question? (Assessment question)

What happened to the British Empire after WW2 ended?