Dear Parents and Guardians,

We received some incredible submissions to our Extreme Reading Challenge. Thank you to everyone who entered and congratulations to these very creative winners!

Safety Update

We have learned of a few near misses in the staff carpark at the beginning and end of the day. Please avoid walking through the carpark or past the Scout Hut at these times to keep children safely away from harm. Thank you.

Some of our children have told us that they would like to engage in calmer, quieter activities at lunchtime. From Monday, our Lunchtime Calm club will be on offer to all. If you think your child would particularly benefit from this, please do get in touch at my email below so that we can signpost it for them.

Our fabulous chickens are keen to meet some more human friends. If you have some time to spare and would like to feed them at weekends or holidays, please do get in touch. Thank you!

We would also like to introduce some new recruits to our reading army. If you are keen to support children in the magical journey of learning to read, we would love to hear from you.

Hello Yellow Day is next Thursday 10th October. Children are invited to wear their favourite clothes with as much yellow as they like. Any donations for Young Minds gratefully received.

Finally, congratulations to Year 6 who have been beating the rush on the 3D printer ahead of festive decoration season. Rather than drawing their designs, these technical whizzes have been creating them entirely from code. Wow!

Best wishes for a relaxing weekend.
