

PENPOL NEWSLETTER

5TH DECEMBER 2025

This week

It has begun to feel very festive this week, even in the rain! The children are busy practising their Christmas performances and are sounding amazing. There is a reminder of all the events in the 'Dates for your Diary' section.

I also wanted to thank you for your support this week. The children have been suffering from winter germs, and unfortunately, so have the staff. We try, wherever possible, to be consistent with the cover staff we use. Sometimes, however, this is just not possible. We appreciate your understanding, and hopefully, we will be back to a full house very soon!

We look forward to seeing you celebrating with your children from next week 😊
